VICE PRESIDENT'S REPORT: LLOYD BRAZEE

- Thank you for sending me to Minnesota, National President Conference (NPC).
- Maintenance employees were issued cell phones with a new app that takes a photo each time they clock in or out. The matter is under review, and local grievances were encouraged.
- The proposed Skill Maintenance Assessment (SMA) would replace interviews for the Maintenance 955 exam. Implementation remains under negotiation.
- Contractors were installing rehabilitated DBCS machines, which is bargaining unit work. A national dispute is pending, and a local grievance has been filed.
- Concerns were raised over laptops issued to ETs, MPEs, and MM7s. Although management stated the laptops were optional, it is tracking employees who do not use them. The issue remains under review.
- Several safety complaints have been filed, including an employee injured after being instructed to use a broken dumper, broken emergency stop (E-stop) devices, and other unsafe conditions.
- A manager entered a live DBCS machine without following lockout/tagout procedures, wearing the required PPE, or proper attire. An OSHA complaint will be filed.
